A small lapel pin can say a lot about your group, business, or personal style. We help you turn logos, symbols, and creative ideas into quality lapel pins for everyday use and special events. Our team works with your artwork to produce pins that reflect your brand, group, or personal message. We provide personalised lapel pins in NZ and offer a simple way to get pins made to suit your needs. We pay attention to fine details, clear colours, and the overall finish of each pin.
